Protector and Predator

You will need:

Blindfold and some treasure

Can be played inside or outside

How to play!

- The protector is sat blindfolded, on a chair or on the floor, use a scarf or long fabric or whatever you have for the blindfold. They are protecting their food/treasure, this could be keys or an actual chocolate bar.
- One person is chosen to be the predators, it is their job to sneak up without being detected and steal the food. To be detected the protector must point straight at the predator.
- Set an area for the predator to move from and go back to if they get caught.

This game can be used for any topic or story, Eagles and eggs or the Gruffalo and a nut! Discussions around senses could be had and survival techniques.
